

HEALTH CARE HEADLINES

One of the best ways to fight for better health care? Share your health care story.

Everybody has a health care story. If you've had to use your health insurance, you likely know how flawed the system is. Personal stories make a difference to legislators. Take a minute to share your story with us

Now is the time to pass a Public Option law

Last week, legislators and advocates gathered in Hartford to announce an effort to improve health care so more people can go to the doctor when they need to,

at a price they can afford. You may be wondering what exactly a "public option" for health insurance is, and luckily for you we have the answers. Jill Zorn wrote an easy to understand guide on our blog. Read more.

Modernize the way Connecticut votes

The 2020 election was a testament to our democratic process and the commitment of the American people to conduct elections in a free, fair and non-partisan way. Not only did our election system work, but it worked well. Many Connecticut citizens and elected officials worked with dedication and integrity to make voting safe and convenient, providing confidence that every vote was counted, even under new and challenging circumstances.
