The legislative session is winding down: what can you do today?

The legislative session ends in June, but action is still needed on health care. Here's what you can do: Use this tool to write Senate Leader Looney and House Speaker Ritter to tell them why Connecticut needs a strong public option!

MONDAY, MAY 17: Join us and Recovery For All on Tax Day to tell Governor Lamont that CT needs Recovery For All!

Budget discussions are underway, and it's important to keep up the momentum on Governor Lamont to create a budget that funds health care, housing, education, and more. Wear red to stand for health care!

Join us May 17 at 5pm under the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Arch in Bushnell Park as we march to the State Capitol to demand an equitable budget and tax plan!

2020 Annual Report: Our Path Forward

At Universal Health Care, we didn't anticipate what 2020 brought. But, we pivoted, and we learned several important lessons about our work. Now, we're putting those lessons into action for a better future.
