

HEALTH CARE HEADLINES

Your health care is at risk

With the Affordable Care Act (ACA) due before the Supreme Court in November, and Amy Coney-Barrett as the SCOTUS nominee on record as opposing the ACA, we need to work overtime to protect our health care! There are hundreds of thousands of folks in CT who are at risk of losing their health coverage or crucial consumer protections if the ACA is repealed.

Here's what you can do: fill out this form, or share it in your network. Senators Richard Blumenthal and Chris Murphy need stories to bring to the Senate to show how important the ACA is in our communities. It's easy to fill out, and could have a big impact. Please take the time to fill out or share today: ACA Story Form.

Ever been brushed off by a political candidate?

In a recent conversation with Lynne Ide, Policy & Program Director, Gretchen Raffa and Evelyn Mantilla, we go over what to do when talking to candidates about health care and how to hold them accountable. We also had a crash course on voting rights and election day information. Watch here.

Less than 4 weeks until the election...

It's time to get serious about your plans to vote. Thankfully, our #IVote4HealthCare toolkit is updated with voter information.

- What happens if I have a mail-in ballot but want to vote in person?
- If I'm in line to vote but the polls are closing, can I still cast a ballot?
- What do I do if I didn't get my mail-in ballot yet?

Fill out the form here \(En español aquí\) to get full access.

After Ruth Bader Ginsburg, we must nurture those who follow in her footsteps.

For the blog, I wrote about the future of activism and the future of the fight without one of its most notorious figures. "People like Justice Ginsburg are rare not because so few have the potential, but because the system does not want people like them to succeed." Read more.
