

HEALTH CARE HEADLINES

What drives you to vote for health care?

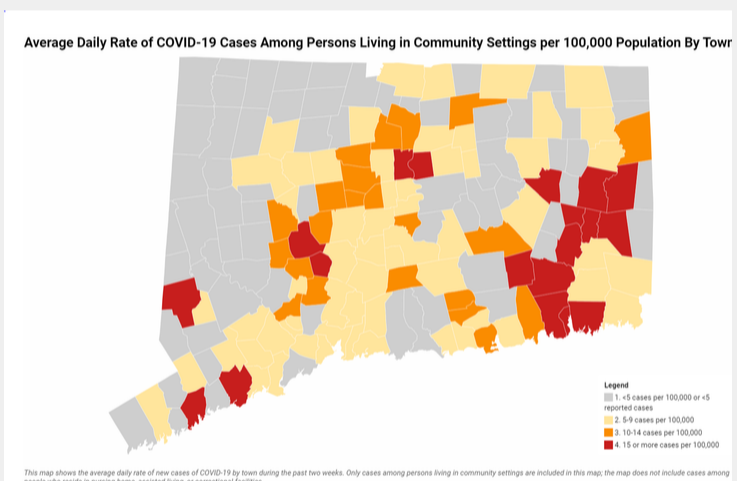

There are lots of reasons to be a health care voter. Share yours with us, by taking the #IVote4HealthCare pledge, which you can find in our #IVote4HealthCare 2020 Toolkit.

You can also tweet @uhcf_ct using the hashtag #IVote4HealthCare to send us a picture of you casting a vote, and sharing your motivation to be a health care voter. Happy voting!

Covid is heating back up in Connecticut.

New on the blog: Jill Zorn writes about the uphill battle that remains with COVID-19 in CT after a better-than-expected summer.

"But the ability to target testing, in both long term care facilities and throughout the state, is seriously threatened. That is because the Coronavirus Relief Fund is only authorized to pay for testing through December 30, 2020." Read more.

Kristen's story, and how you fit in.

Kristen Whitney Daniels is a tireless advocate for people who need insulin in CT and beyond. As a person with a pre-existing condition (type 1 diabetes) she would have been considered "uninsurable" before the Affordable Care Act (ACA). If the ACA is overturned, we could go back to this bleak reality. Find out how you can
